[This is the version of this document from 31 December 1979.]

[This legislation was digitised using the Laws of Lesotho Volumes I à XLVII, which were produced by the Attorney General of Lesotho, as reference. As the volumes do not include precise publication dates, the last day of the year of publication has been used as the date of publication.]

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 14 of the Legal Aid Act 1978, I Gerard Pokane Ramoreboli Minister of Justice and Prisons make the following regulations—

1. Citation

These regulations may be cited as the Legal Aid Regulations 1979.

2. Legal Aid certificate and order for contribution

- (1) Every certificate and order by a magistrate under section 4 of the Act shall be in Form L.A. 1 in Schedule I.
- (2) Every certificate and order of a resident magistrate under section 5 of the Act shall be in Form L.A. 2 in Schedule 1.
- (3) Every certificate and order under this regulation shall be prepared in triplicate and a copy thereof shall be served on the person in receipt of legal aid (hereinafter referred to as the "aided person") and to the Chief Legal Aid Counsel.

3. Application for legal aid

- (1) An application for legal aid under section 4 or 5 of the Act may be made orally, and the magistrate to whom the application is made shall record the proceedings relating to the application in a separate file from the case record.
- (2) Every application for legal aid under section 6, 7 or 9 of the Act shall be in Form L.A. 3 in Schedule I.
- (3) An application for legal aid under section 9(1) (a) or (b) of the Act shall send the application together with Form L.A. 4 or 5 in Schedule I, as the case may be.

4. Contribution to legal aid

- (1) An applicant for legal aid who has assets, a salary or an income of an amount shown in the first column in Schedule II shall be deemed, in the absence of special circumstances, to have sufficient means to enable him to contribute the amount set opposite to that person's assets, salary or income in the second column.
- (2) Contribution may be ordered or required to be paid in one lump-sum or in instalments on the dates to be determined.
- (3) Every aided person shall from time to time inform the Chief Legal Aid Counsel of any alterations in the amount of his means.

5. Appeals to the Registrar from magistrate's decisions

- (1) An appeal by an aided person under section 10(3) of the Act against an order for contribution or as to the amount thereof may be made orally immediately after the making of the order or in writing within 14 days of the order or in Form L.A. 6 in Schedule I.
- (2) An appeal by the Chief Legal Aid Counsel, against the amount fixed for contribution, under section 10(3) of the Act may be made within 14 days of the date of the service of the order on him.
- (3) The magistrate, resident magistrate or other court or the Chief Legal Aid Counsel shall forthwith give notice in writing of an appeal under this regulation to the Registrar of the High Court, and shall forward to the Registrar the case record relating thereto.
- (4) Upon receipt of the notice referred to in sub-regulation (3), the Registrar of the High Court may, after such inquiry as he thinks just, dismiss or grant the appeal or issue a certificate or send the matter back with such directives as he may consider relevant.
- (5) An appeal under section 11 (1) of the Act may be made orally in court immediately after the refusal to issue a certificate or in writing within 14 days after the date of the refusal.

6. Appeal to Registrar from Chief Legal Aid Counsel's decisions

- (1) An appeal—
 - (a) under section 10 (3) of the Act against a requirement of the Chief Legal Aid Counsel for a contribution to be made or the amount thereof; and
 - (b) under section 11 (3) of the Act,may be made to the Registrar of the High Court in writing upon notice to the Chief Legal Aid Counsel in Form L.A. 6 in Schedule I within 14 days after the day on which the aided person is informed of the requirement of contribution, or on which the convicted person is informed of the refusal of the Chief Legal Aid Counsel to undertake his representation, as the case may be.
- (2) Upon receipt of the notice of appeal under sub-regulation (1) the Chief Legal Aid Counsel shall transmit the application for legal aid in respect of which the appeal lies to the Registrar of the High Court.
- (3) Upon receipt of the notice under this regulation the Registrar of the High Court may, after such inquiry as he thinks just, dismiss the appeal, alter the requirement of contribution, reduce the amount or order that legal aid be rendered.

7. Fees and contribution in criminal cases

- (1) Where the Chief Legal Aid Counsel instructs a legal practitioner under section 13 of the Act for the purpose of a criminal trial or appeal, the Chief Legal Aid Counsel may pay fees to such legal practitioner in accordance with Schedule III.
- (2) Where a legal aid counsel undertakes the representation of an aided person in a criminal trial or appeal, the amount of fees which would be payable in accordance with Schedule III to a legal practitioner in respect of the representation shall be deemed to be sums paid or payable on account of that aided person for the purposes of section 10(9) of the Act.

8. Fees, costs and contribution in civil cases

- (1) Where in any civil proceedings an aided person is ordered to pay costs of any party to the proceedings, the court may direct an inquiry as to what is a reasonable sum for the aided person to pay in the circumstances.

- (2) Where the Chief Legal Aid Counsel undertakes work of a civil nature for an aided person which does not result in court proceedings and has required the aided person to make a contribution to the costs of such work, the aided person may, if he thinks that the costs which would be allowed on taxation would be less than the contribution required, request the costs to be taxed.
- (3) If a request is made pursuant to sub-regulation (1), the Chief Legal Aid Counsel shall submit to the Registrar of the High Court a bill of costs, and the bill shall be taxed by the Registrar of the High Court on the basis set out in paragraph (b) in Schedule III.
- (4) Where the Chief Legal Aid Counsel instructs a legal practitioner under section 13 of the Act for the purpose of any civil proceedings, the costs payable by the Government to the legal practitioner shall be as set out in paragraph (b) in Schedule III.

9. Termination of legal aid

- (1) The Chief Legal Aid Counsel may terminate legal aid—
 - (a) at any time at the request of the aided person;
 - (b) where the aided person has been required to make a contribution and any payment in respect thereof is more than 21 days in arrears;
 - (c) if he is satisfied that the proceedings in respect of which legal aid was granted have been disposed of;
 - (d) on notice to the aided person, if he is satisfied that the aided person has required the proceedings to be conducted unreasonably so as to incur unjustifiable expense to the Government or has required unreasonably that the proceedings be continued;
 - (e) on being satisfied that the aided person is dead; or
 - (f) on notice to the aided person, on being satisfied that false information was given in the application for legal aid.
- (2) At any time during the hearing of any proceedings in respect of which legal aid has been granted the court may, upon application of an interested party or the Chief Legal Aid Counsel, consider whether the aided person obtained legal aid by fraudulent means or whether the circumstances under which legal aid was granted have changed since the making, and may make such order as it thinks fit in the circumstances.
- (3) Where a grant of legal aid has been terminated the costs of the proceedings to which the grant of legal aid related incurred on behalf of the aided person shall, as soon as practicable thereafter be taxed accordingly.
